Jenkinson Estates are pleased to bring to the market this charming cottage, situated in the ever-popular location of Sandown Road, Deal. Located just one road back from Deal seafront and promenade, this would certainly make a good family home or ideal purchase for someone looking to escape to the coast. The property is accessed via a lobby and opens into a sitting room that leads to a dining room. From here there are split levels, up to the family shower room and down to a kitchen / breakfast room. The first floor offers two bedrooms, both having the benefit of fitted wardrobes. The rear bedroom has the benefit of a separate W.C. that has been tastefully hidden behind wardrobe doors. The accommodation is completed with a lower ground floor area that is currently being used as a study and is accessed from the breakfast room. Externally the property boasts an impressive garden that is currently split into two, divided by a garden room. The property is completed with a tandem garage that is over 31ft in length. A charming home situated in a sought after location just yards from the seafront and beach. The fashionable high street and the famous Conservation are in and around Middle Street are all within a short walk. All viewings are strictly by appointment via the Sole Agent Jenkinson Estates.
