New to the market and exclusive to Jenkinson Estates is this two-bedroom house located at Bridgeside in central Deal, just a small walk from the train station and town centre. The property is in a cul-de-sac location and is end of terrace. The lounge is a good size and leads through to the kitchen breakfast room which has room for a dining table and chairs. A downstairs utility room and WC which houses the washing machine, with space for a tumble dryer too is an added benefit. The conservatory at the back of the house would make a great second reception room or office. Upstairs hosts the family bathroom with bath and shower over, as well as one double and one single bedroom. There is a garage also included in the let. Available Mid May.
