Exclusively available via Jenkinson Lettings is this period property situated within one of Deal's famed Conservation areas and a genuine stone's throw from the seafront. The first floor has a bedroom / study, well-appointed family size bathroom, and a further bedroom, or if required a further reception room. The second floor provides two further bedrooms, both double and the master with en-suite shower room. Both the master bedroom and the first-floor bedroom or reception room have a view of the sea. Not panoramic, but none the less a view of the sea. The feeling of space throughout is enhanced with the high ceilings coupled with the light that pours through the Georgian sash windows. A spacious and neatly presented period home, arranged over three floors, footsteps from Deal's wonderful far-reaching seafront and beach.
