DESCRIPTION

This detached chalet bungalow enjoys an idyllic situation on Hythe's picturesque lower hillside from where it commands magnificent southerly views over the town and of the sea. The accommodation, which is surprisingly spacious, is arranged to provide an entrance vestibule, sitting room and separate dining area both enjoying views over Hythe and of the sea, fitted kitchen, boiler room and utility room. The principal bedroom also enjoys the same lovely views and there is a second bedroom, shower room and separate cloakroom.

The gardens are a particularly attractive feature of the property. The garden to the front is a delight and slopes gently upward away from the road and has side access to the rear garden. The rear garden is partially walled and thoughtfully tiered and also with views of the sea from the upper levels, the ideal environment in which to dine alfresco and from where to enjoy the views.

SITUATION

Hillside Street is situated within the desirable Conservation Area of the town, two roads back from the bustling High Street, with its range of interesting shops, boutiques, restaurants and cafes, together with 4 supermarkets (including Waitrose, Sainsburys and Aldi), doctors surgeries, etc.

The attractive, unspoilt seafront and picturesque Royal Military Canal are a short walk away together with a variety of sports and leisure facilities, including 2 golf courses, swimming pool, cricket, squash, bowls and lawn tennis clubs together with the Hotel Imperial Leisure Centre.

The area is fortunate in having particularly good communications with a main line railway station in Saltwood (Sandling 2 miles) and access to the M20 (Junction 11 4 miles). The High Speed Link rail service to Stratford and St Pancras is available from Folkestone West (5 miles) and Ashford International (10 miles), with journey times of 53 and 37 minutes respectively. The Channel Tunnel Terminal is just over 3 miles away and the ferry port of Dover 12 miles away. (All distances are approximate.)

OUTSIDE

FRONT GARDEN

A timber and trellis work gate set between a pair of ragstone peers opens to a path and steps which meander through the generous garden to the front of the property which enjoys a southerly aspect and incorporates various borders stocked with a variety of shrubs, herbaceous and other plants including Smokebush, ornamental grasses, geranium, hebe, and specimen flowering cherry. To the front of the house is a relatively level expanse of lawn and an elevated paved terrace in part set beneath a timber framed pergola supporting a campus and from where magnificent views over Hythe, of the sea and around the bay to Dungeness can be enjoyed. Adjacent to this area is a timber framed summer house. A gate gives side access to the:-

REAR GARDEN

The garden to the rear of the property is tiered over three levels and is predominantly paved for ease of maintenance with an elevated bed at the back stocked with a variety of shrubs including rosemary, tree peony, sage and agapanthus. The bed is broken via a flight of steps which lead to an elevated seating area from where views between the property and its neighbour can be enjoyed to the sea. Adjoining the rear of the house is a timber framed and glazed structure formally utilised as a greenhouse.
