DESCRIPTION

This enchanting Grade II listed cottage is nestled on Hythe's picturesque hillside from where it enjoys some lovely southerly views over the town and of the sea.

The charming interior exudes charm and character throughout with a wealth of original features. The accommodation is of comfortable proportions and comprises a welcoming entrance hall leading to the well fitted kitchen and to the dining room beyond which is the sitting room, the sitting room benefitting from a cosy wood burning stove. On the first floor the bedroom, which enjoys views to the sea, also boasts a walk-in wardrobe. There is also a shower room.

The courtyard garden to the rear of the house is delightfully secluded, enjoys side access to Hillside Street and provides a delightful environment for alfresco dining and relaxation.

SITUATION

Hillside Street is situated within the desirable Conservation Area of the town, two roads back from the bustling High Street, with its range of interesting shops, boutiques, restaurants and cafes, together with 4 supermarkets (including Waitrose, Sainsburys and Aldi), doctors' surgeries, etc.

The attractive, unspoilt seafront and picturesque Royal Military Canal are a short walk away together with a variety of sports and leisure facilities, including 2 golf courses, swimming pool, cricket, squash, bowls and lawn tennis clubs together with the Hotel Imperial Leisure Centre.

The area is fortunate in having particularly good communications with a main line railway station in Saltwood (Sandling 2 miles) and access to the M20 (Junction 11 4 miles). The High Speed Link rail service to Stratford and St Pancras is available from Folkestone West (5 miles) and Ashford International (10 miles), with journey times of 53 and 37 minutes respectively. The Channel Tunnel Terminal is just over 3 miles away and the ferry port of Dover 12 miles away. (All distances are approximate).
