Set within an elegant period mansion block, this exceptional raised ground floor apartment offers an impressive blend of volume, character, and refined modern living in one of North West London's most desirable residential pockets. Extending across a generous footprint, the property is defined by its remarkable sense of space, highlighted by a stunning double-volume reception room with soaring three-metre ceilings and expansive proportions - an ideal setting for both formal entertaining and relaxed family living. The well-appointed kitchen/dining room provides a sociable heart to the home, thoughtfully designed to balance practicality with style, and complemented by a separate utility room. The apartment further benefits from excellent built-in storage throughout, ensuring a clean and uncluttered living environment. Accommodation comprises four well-proportioned bedrooms, including a principal suite, alongside two contemporary bathrooms, all finished to a high standard and designed with comfort in mind. A rare and standout feature of this home is access to arguably one of the finest private communal gardens in North West London - beautifully maintained and offering a tranquil retreat for residents.
