The Property Misdescriptions Act 1991

Whilst we as De Scotia estate agents endeavour to ensure the accuracy of property details produced and displayed, we have not tested any apparatus, equipment, fixture and fittings or services and so cannot verify that they are connected, in working order or fit for the purpose. Neither have we had sight of the legal documents to verify the Freehold or Leasehold status of any property. A Buyer is advised to obtain verification from their Solicitor and/or Surveyor. A buyer must check the availability of any property and make an appointment to view before embarking on any journey to see a property. Items shown in photographs are not included; they may be available by separate negotiation.

The Data Protection Act 1998

Please note that all personal information provided by customers wishing to receive information and/or services from the estate agent will be processed by the estate agent, the De Scotia Association Consortium Company of which it is a member and for the purpose of providing services associated with the business of an estate agent and for the additional purposes set out in the privacy policy (copies available on request) but specifically excluding mailings or promotions by a third party. If you do not wish your personal information to be used for any of these purposes, please notify your estate agents.
