Lilac Cottage

Little Doward, Whitchurch, Ross-on-Wye

This charming and sympathetically extended 4 bed, detached, stone cottage has an elevated, rural aspect with far reaching views towards the Malvern Hills. Close to Whitchurch and the A40, its versatile accommodation over two floors enjoys a wealth of beautifully handcrafted fixtures and finishes throughout, together with a single person lift between floors. The recently built adjoining annexe has level access to the driveway and provides many possibilities for multigenerational living, office, studio, or play area. Set in approximately 1.5 acres of gardens and woodland, with ample parking, an external office and useful outbuildings.

A combination of the original stone and more recent cavity walled construction, painted rendered exterior and inset double glazed wooden framed and uPVC windows and doors set under pitched tiled roofs. Internal features include exposed beams and stonework, bespoke joinery with handcrafted ledged and braced doors with Suffolk latches, feature woodburning stoves, low voltage downlighters and a combination of wooden and ceramic tiled flooring. An air source heat pump and solar panels supply domestic hot water and heating to radiators throughout.
