Brockweir Lodge

Underhill, Brockweir, The Wye Valley

Located in a truly idyllic rural location in the heart of the Wye Valley and within easy reach of major road networks, is this elegant 6-bedroom country residence with a stunning elevated aspect and outstanding views. Enjoying a sunny southwest facing aspect, the property is nestled within approximately 6.62 acres of extensive grounds with paddocks, woodland, formal gardens, sun terraces and an all-weather fenced tennis court. Private sweeping driveway, detached triple garage and a stable/coach house with potential for conversion.

The property is traditionally constructed in stone and brick with inset mainly original wooden sash windows and wooden doors set under pitched tiled roofs with ornate facias and barge boards. Sympathetically updated whilst retaining its wealth of character and original features. Other internal features include marble and cast-iron fireplaces, ceiling roses, moulded skirting boards and architraves, low voltage downlighters, picture and dado rails, wooden panelled and part glazed doors and a combination of hardwood, tiled and carpeted flooring. An oil-fired boiler provides domestic hot water and heating to radiators throughout with underfloor heating to the open plan kitchen/dining room.

The property is approached from the front garden, under a feature portico entrance with timber supports and through a part glazed door with stained glass panel into:
